

You can change anything you need to fit into your space. Hope this all helps.

Kathy

Minutes for October 29, 2007

Call to order at 7:10 p.m.

Lt. Reginald Hendrix (Reginald.Hendrix@BaltimoreCityPolice.org), Post Commander Officer Dan Casey, and Officer Scott Lawrence attended they took Q/A.

The Presidents remarks where read and as followed.

Minutes for 10/29/07 for Concerned Citizens for a Better Brooklyn

President's Remarks by Kathleen M. Hogan:

- October 13th Fall Community Clean-Up- We met at the church and cleaned up the alley behind S. Hanover and 2nd Street and a few other places around town.
 - Officer Appreciation day October 26th was held at Southern District Police Station 10 Cherry Hill Road all went well.
 - Community Dumpsters
 - November 4600 block of Virginia Avenue,
 - December 8th St. & Garrett
 - The next C.O.P. walk will be on Thursday November 29, 2007 at 7:00 p.m. –bring a friend and a flashlight meet at Hargrove Court House.
 - The Mayor's Office will reschedule
 - Town Hall Meeting at Ben Franklin Middle School went very well very informative
 - I lost to Major Michael McDonald in not getting enough Block Watch numbers that I promised him.
 - Our Environmental Oversight Partnership (E.O.P.) has a new Vice President Bill Lehman

We will be doing away with a few Committees.

Secretary's report was $927.79

Baybrook Coalition Carol Eshlman gave her report on Masonville Cove, Healthy Neighborhoods, and Potee St. proposal site, The New Townhouses on 6th Street. You can call her at 410-355-1100 on anything else that is going on there.

Brandi Welch from the State Attorney Office gave us a report on the Court cases pending in Hargrove Court House in Brooklyn.

Jennifer Rosenthal and Joanne Robinson gave us an update on what is happening at the Chesapeake Learning Center and ChangZ programs for after schools.

1st Guest Speaker Denise Caldwell gave us and update on Garret Park and the new playground equipment that will be installed next year.

2nd Guest Speakers Sonya Moore and Officer Meng-Ching Liu from Community Affairs Section talked about the Senior Bracelet program and were able to sign a few neighbors up.

We had a questions and or/ comments from the CCBB membership and guest and the meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m.